REFLECTION

Challenges

- Dealing with feelings of negative emotions: disappointment, isolation, anxiety, stress, uncertainty about job, etc.
- Safety, self-care, time-management, psychosocial support, network
- Faculty and students are challenged by unfamiliar technologies and pedagogies (remote learning, academic integrity, evaluation, etc.)

Opportunities

- Strengthen a humanistic approach: high-touch is more important than high-tech
- Design curricula that reflect health care trends and prepare graduates
- Facilitate learning in the cognitive, affective, and psychomotor domains of learning
- Develop assessment and evaluation strategies
